Penalty for presenting fraudulent claim: Fine of up to $500,000 or imprisonment for up to 5 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152 and 3571.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district in which the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the debtor's full name, and the case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a).

If any portion of the claim falls into any category shown, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest and documents required by FRBP 3001(c) for claims based on an open-end or revolving consumer credit agreement or secured by a security interest in the debtor's principal residence. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

8. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

DEFINITIONS*Debtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity to whom debtor owes a debt that was incurred before the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment for a debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the clerk of the same bankruptcy court in which the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. § 506 (a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien.

A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATION*Acknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may access the court's PACER system (www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov) for a small fee to view your filed proof of claim.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

SOUTHERN DIVISION

In re:

CITY OF DETROIT, MICHIGAN

Debtor.

Chapter 9
Case No. 13-53846

Hon. Steven W. Rhodes

RIDER TO PROOF OF CLAIM OF
INLAND WATERS POLLUTION CONTROL, INC.

1. Inland Waters Pollution Control, Inc. is a Michigan corporation that specializes in trenchless underground pipeline rehabilitation.

2. Both prior to and subsequent to July 18, 2013 (the "Petition Date"), Inland provided various services to the City of Detroit, Michigan (the "Debtor") and, more specifically, the City of Detroit Water and Sewerage Department ("DWSD").

3. On or about November 28, 2012, Inland Waters Pollution Control, Inc. and certain of its affiliates (collectively, "Inland"), Anthony Soave, and the Debtor, acting through and with the authority of the DWSD and its Board of Water Commissioners (the "BOWC"), entered into a Letter Agreement (the "Agreement").

4. The Agreement was the culmination of Responsible Vendor Proceedings and related discussions between Inland, the DWSD and the BOWC.

The Agreement provided that Inland would pay the DWSD $4,500,000 in installments, with $1,500,000 paid within five days of the execution of the Agreement and the remainder to be paid in equal annual installments of $500,000 for a six year period following the execution of the Agreement.

5. Inland has complied with the payment terms of the Agreement and to date has paid $1,500,000 and one annual installment of $500,000, for a total of $2,000,000.

6. The Agreement provided that “Based on the Responsible Vendor Proceedings and the related Notices, the BOWC hereby finds that each Inland Entity is presently a ‘Responsible Vendor.’” The Agreement further provided that “After the date of this Agreement [November 28, 2012], Inland Entities . . . will neither be prejudiced with respect to any . . . bid nor subjected to any review process previously initiated by the BOWC regarding their past practices and activities....”

7. Inland contends that the Debtor, through the DWSD and the BOWC, has materially breached the Agreement. On or about February 12, 2014, a representative of the BOWC, Fred Barnes, stated to an Inland competitor that “Inland is dirty” (implying that Inland has engaged in some alleged improper activity and is not a Responsible Vendor) and that it was his intent to make sure that Inland does not receive future work from the DWSD. These statements are both untrue and a material breach of the Agreement.

8. As a result of this material breach, Inland is entitled to the following, among other relief: (a) damages in an amount of $2,000,000 (constituting the payments that Inland previously made under the Agreement), and (b) other monetary damages for not being considered for future DWSD contracts to be determined at a later time.

9. Inland expressly reserves its right to supplement and/or amend this proof of claim, as and when necessary.

I certify that the foregoing statements are, to the best of my knowledge, true and correct.

Penalty for presenting fraudulent claim: Fine of up to $500,000 or imprisonment for up to 5 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152 and 3571

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district in which the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the debtor's full name, and the case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a).

If any portion of the claim falls into any category shown, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest and documents required by FRBP 3001(c) for a claim based on an open-end or revolving consumer credit agreement or secured by a security interest in the debtor's principal residence. In re:

CITY OF DETROIT, MICHIGAN

Debtor.

Chapter 9

Case No. 13-53846

Hon. Steven W. Rhodes

RIDER TO PROOF OF CLAIM OF
INLAND WATERS POLLUTION CONTROL, INC.

1. Inland Waters Pollution Control, Inc. is a Michigan corporation that specializes in trenchless underground pipeline rehabilitation.

2. Both prior to and subsequent to July 18, 2013 (the "Petition Date"), Inland provided various services to the City of Detroit, Michigan (the "Debtor") and, more specifically, the City of Detroit Water and Sewerage Department ("DWSD").

3. On or about November 28, 2012, Inland Waters Pollution Control, Inc. and certain of its affiliates (collectively, "Inland"), Anthony Soave, and the Debtor, acting through and with the authority of the DWSD and its Board of Water Commissioners (the "BOWC"), entered into a Letter Agreement (the "Agreement").

4. The Agreement was the culmination of Responsible Vendor Proceedings and related discussions between Inland, the DWSD and the BOWC.

The Agreement provided that Inland would pay the DWSD $4,500,000 in installments, with $1,500,000 paid within five days of the execution of the Agreement and the remainder to be paid in equal annual installments of $500,000 for a six year period following the execution of the Agreement.

5. Inland has complied with the payment terms of the Agreement and to date has paid $1,500,000 and one annual installment of $500,000, for a total of $2,000,000.

6. The Agreement provided that "Based on the Responsible Vendor Proceedings and the related Notices, the BOWC hereby finds that each Inland Entity is presently a 'Responsible Vendor.'" The Agreement further provided that "After the date of this Agreement [November 28, 2012], Inland Entities . . . will neither be prejudiced with respect to any . . . bid nor subjected to any review process previously initiated by the BOWC regarding their past practices and activities...."

7. Inland contends that the Debtor, through the DWSD and the BOWC, has materially breached the Agreement. On or about February 12, 2014, a representative of the BOWC, Fred Barnes, stated to an Inland competitor that "Inland is dirty" (implying that Inland has engaged in some alleged improper activity and is not a Responsible Vendor) and that it was his intent to make sure that Inland does not receive future work from the DWSD. These statements are both untrue and a material breach of the Agreement.

8. As a result of this material breach, Inland is entitled to the following, among other relief: (a) damages in an amount of $2,000,000 (constituting the payments that Inland previously made under the Agreement), and (b) other monetary damages for not being considered for future DWSD contracts to be determined at a later time.

9. Inland expressly reserves its right to supplement and/or amend this proof of claim, as and when necessary.

I certify that the foregoing statements are, to the best of my knowledge, true and correct.
